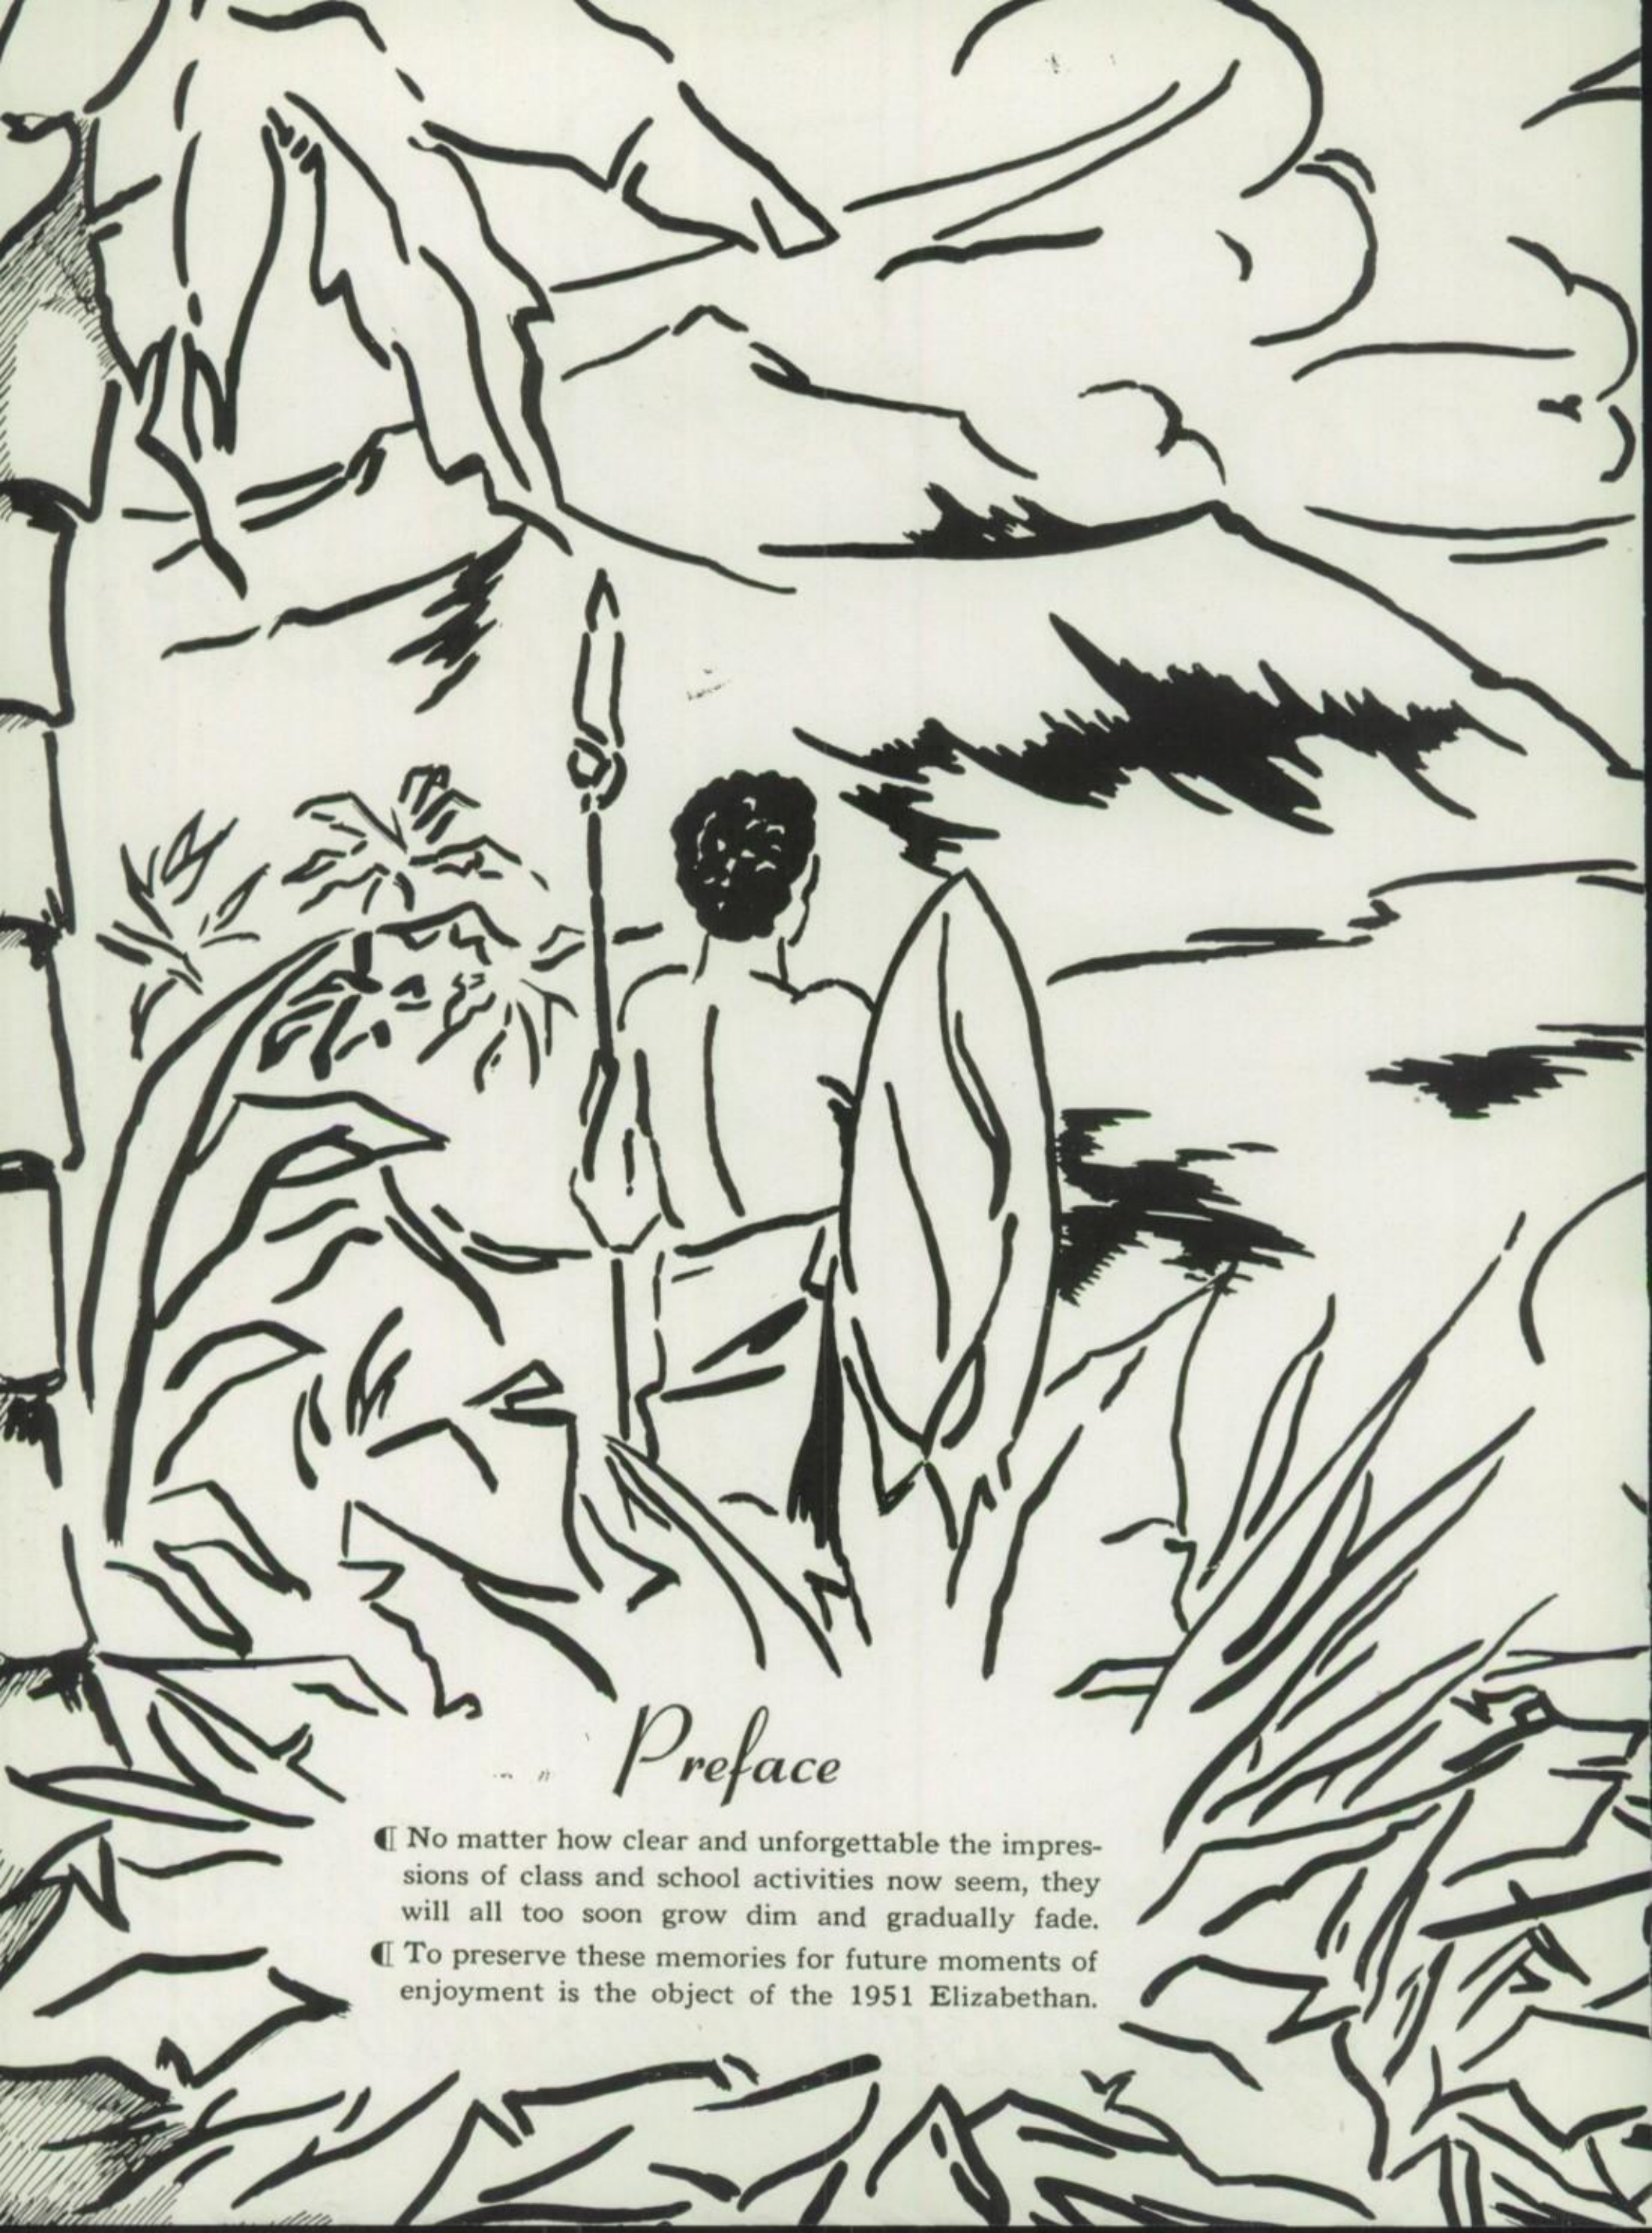
E-town Strives for Character

The faces of these students are typical of most high school students. This picture was taken during a school assembly, one of the many ways by which our school strives for progressiveness, high ideals, and character among the students.

The Elizabethan of 1951

Elizabethtown High School
Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania



Preface

¶ No matter how clear and unforgettable the impressions of class and school activities now seem, they will all too soon grow dim and gradually fade.

¶ To preserve these memories for future moments of enjoyment is the object of the 1951 Elizabethan.

DEDICATION

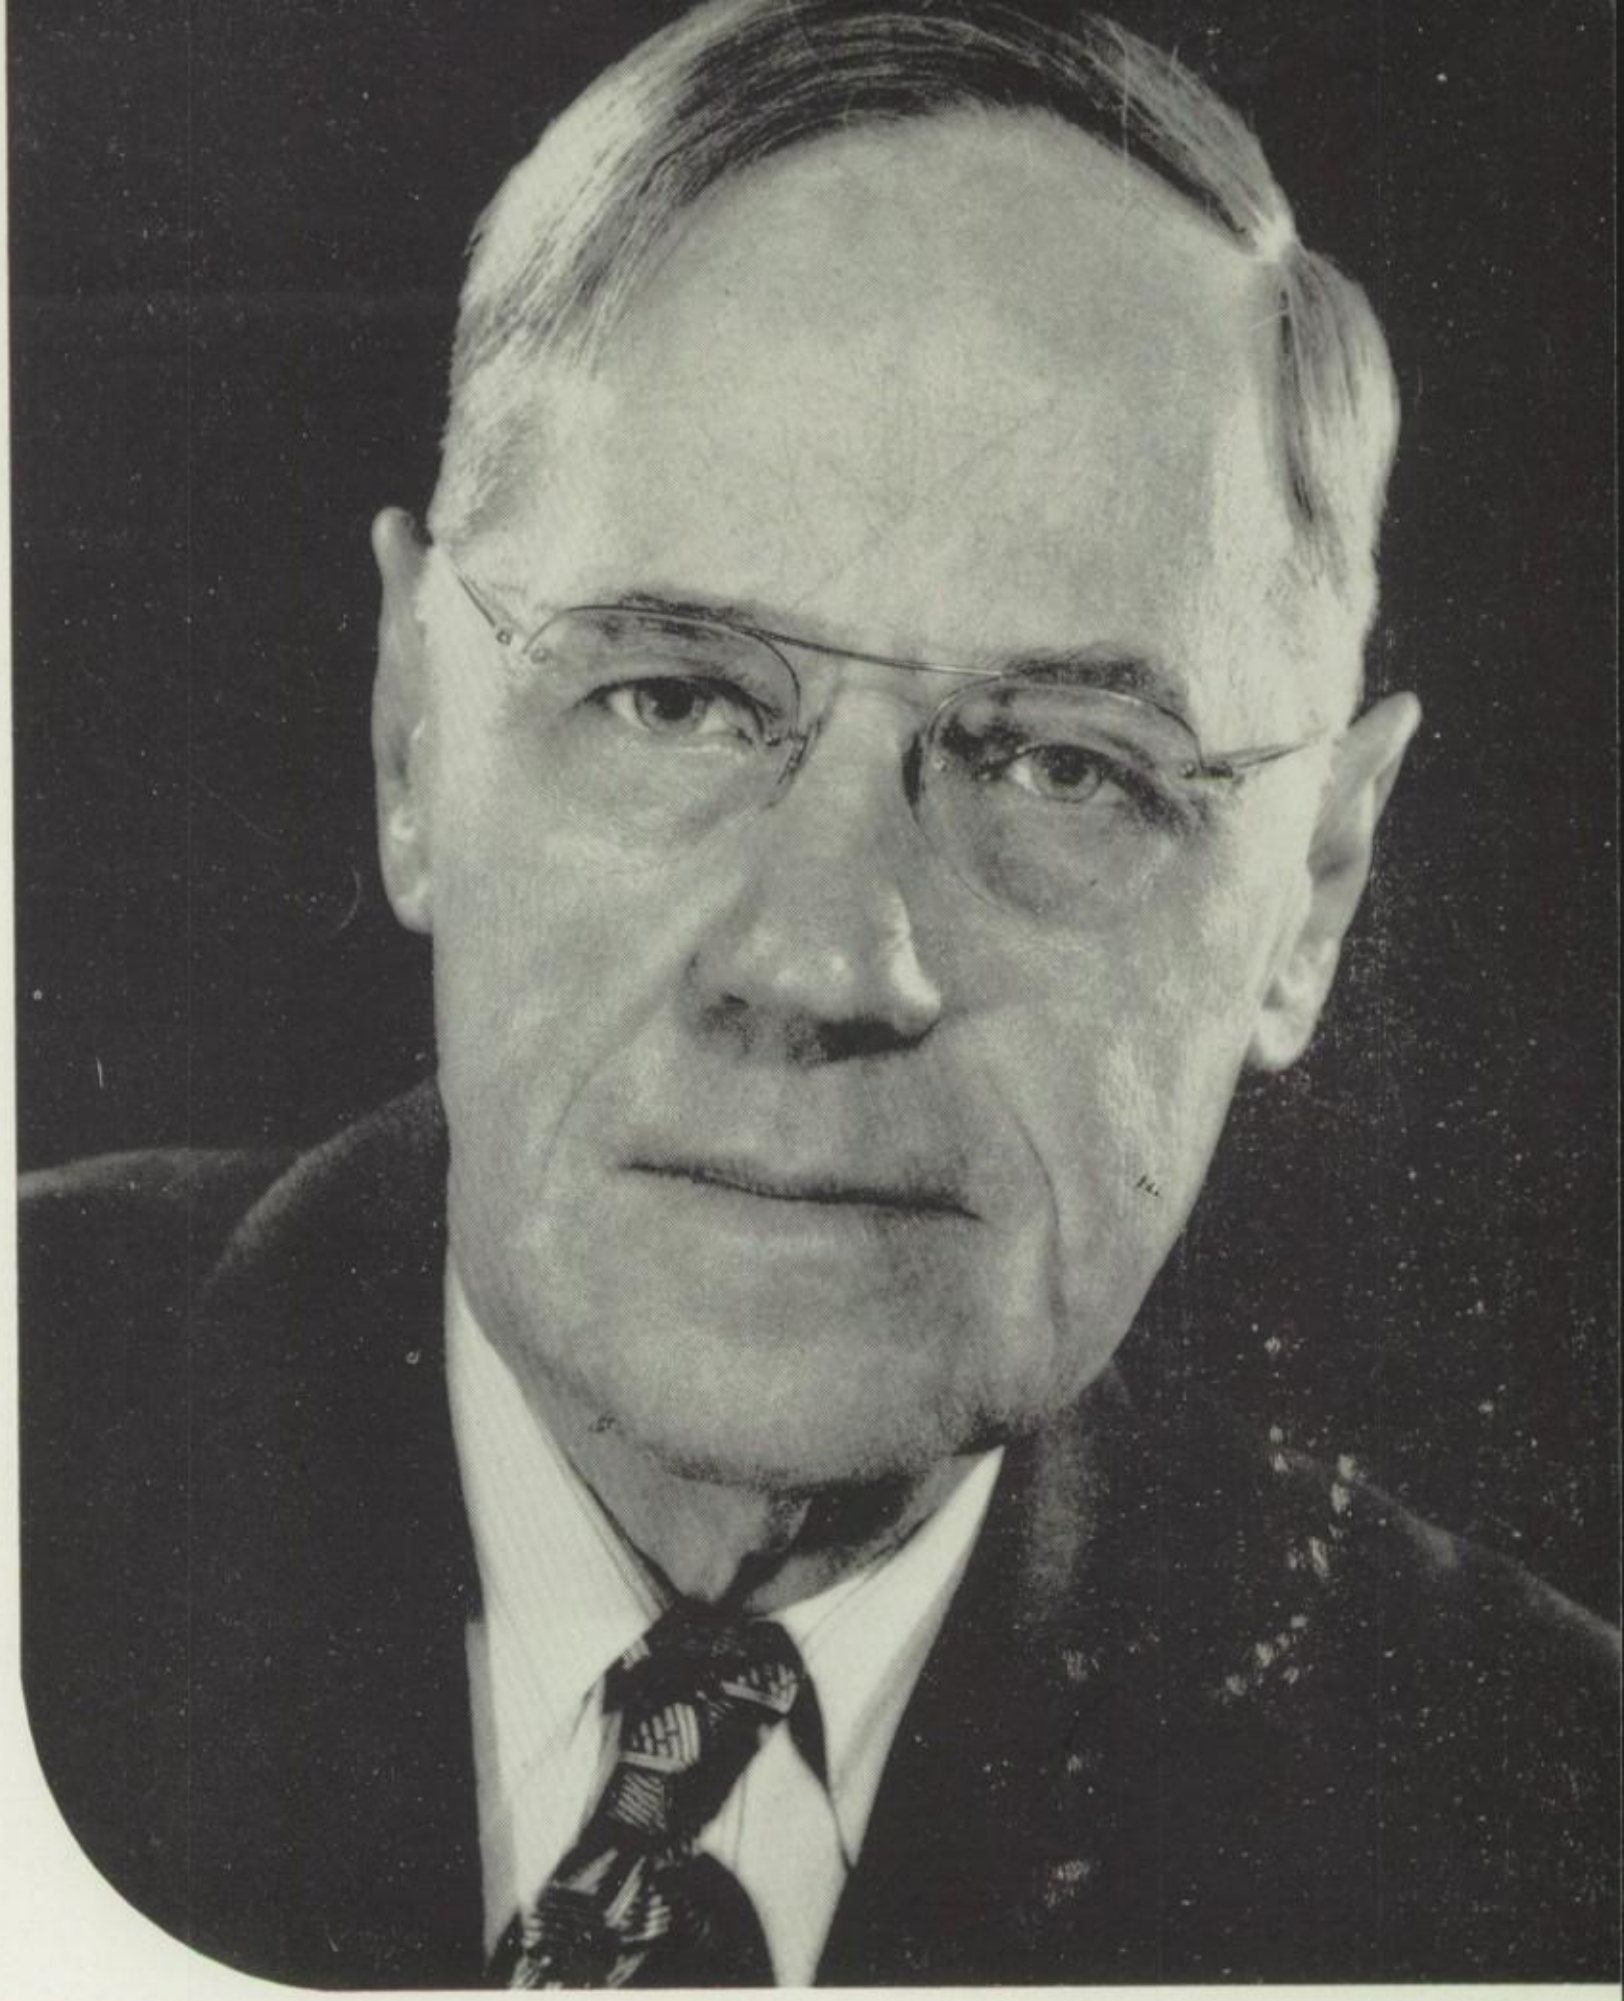
Our Appreciation

WE, THE CLASS OF 1951, have chosen to dedicate this edition of the Elizabethan to Mr. Willis E. Seiders. . . Mr. Seiders has guided us through the adventures of English literature from Chaucer to Kipling. . . All of us have known him, not only as a teacher but also as a friend. . . This is our way of showing our appreciation to someone whom we shall remember for a long time.



Mr. Willis E. Seiders

Administration

Our School Board . . .

THE MEN BEHIND OUR SCHOOL

DECISIONS of vital importance to our school are discussed monthly by the school board . . . buys supplies and athletic equipment . . . repaid only by the progress our school makes.

Dr. Troy M. Thompson . . . one of our town's leading physicians, attends athletic contests as team doctor and is interested in all school sports. Dr. Thompson is also active in Rotary Club. As a member of the board of education he plays a large part in school affairs.

WE, THE CLASS of 1951 set aside this page of our yearbook, to honor our classmates who have entered the service of our country. Whether they be preserving the peace or winning the war, we wish them good luck and a safe return home.

In Memoriam

TO LENNY, a former classmate of the "Class of '51," whom we all remember as the fellow with a friendly gesture for everyone. He was a pleasant, easy-going boy of whom we all were very fond, and who possessed the ability to play the drums "with his heart as well as his hands."

Want a balloon? . . . See any member of the Key Club, who sold them at the Kiwanis Farm Fair.

Seniors at Ease

Lane, Janet, Bill, Dick, and Jill take "time out" for a friendly chat between dances.

Our Trip

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM . . . slipped away to the South Sea Islands for one glorious evening . . . danced beneath the palm trees . . . delicious punch and cookies . . . Maynard McKissick's orchestra really added enchantment to our Prom Night . . . never to be forgotten.

Hi, there! . . . Hesitant? . . . No! Just a few words with a friend . . . helped to relieve tension.

A pleasant smile and a friendly word or two enlightened our moments of the prom.

Coming through! . . . a cheerful greeting was well appreciated and was with our South Sea Islands paradise.

Our tropic setting called for something cool . . . refreshments with fruit punch being the center of attraction!

to the South Sea Islands

Maynard McKissick's Orchestra provided the sparkling music for our dancing and listening pleasure under the swaying palms

Rainbow colored gowns and dark suits combined well with our picturesque setting.

Our First Dramatic Effort . . . EXCELLENT

THE JUNIORS' production of "We Shook the Family Tree" was a huge success . . . practices were more fun! . . . all the dill pickles Barre consumed! . . . and the night Ronnie brought the live fish for dress rehearsal, fish were flopping all over the place . . . where did he get them anyway? . . . remember the morning the whole cast bagged school and went to Highspire, they were putting on the same play, only to find we were a day early . . . never discouraged, we went again the next day . . . no one was ever on time for cues because they were always playing basketball . . . all in all we had a wonderful time and we were sorry when it was over . . . much credit for the success went to our able directress, Miss Miriam Mengel.

"Freddie's" friends seem to find his short pants humorous.

Beauty mud that smells that bad should do wonders for anyone.

"Where are my pants?" shouts the enraged Bob as he makes a dive for Mr. Shermer.

"Look at the big one we got, Mom," exclaim Bob and Jimmy.

"Freddy," trying to explain his sudden acquisition of long pants.

Mrs. Shermer discovers that all her old love letters have been distributed to the neighbors.

Our Senior Play

. . . UNSURPASSABLE

"FUNNY FACE" was a play that will be remembered by those who saw it, for a long time. Who can forget Dell Stevens (Elizabeth Martin) pouring water on Andy (Dick Bainbridge) because he used her as a model for "Silly Dilly," a comic strip character. Matt (Ed Seitz), who was Andy's best pal spent his time patching up Andy's troubles. Julie (Doris Good) as Dell's best friend tried her best to keep Dell's spirit high. Selma (Joann Betz) flirted with Andy, Betty (Helen Eshelman) knew all the news, and Mr. Collins (Tom Harder) was the man with the umbrella. Dozer (Lane Shank) thought Dell should be his girl, while Mrs. Stevens (Lois Weidman) and Mr. Stevens (James Miller) tried to be understanding with a teen-age daughter. Alice (Dolly Messick) was proud of her new bicycle until she ran over Mrs. Kendall (Maxine Shank). Jake, the laundryman, (Bill Chesnutt) kept the audience in stitches every time he appeared and helped Sam (Clair Hilsher) present engagement presents to Dell. Finley (George Achorn) and Meg (Patricia Berrier) from the Evening Star, kept the presses rolling with information on the love affair of Andy and Dell.

Joann Betz and Lane Shank looking on as Liz Martin demonstrates the art of standing on one foot.

Mr. Grosh giving the do's and dont's to the play cast before the opening night.

"What, all this for me?" . . . asks Dell as more engagement presents are heaped on her.

Maxine Shank finally solves the mystery of Liz Martin's secret admirer.

Ah-Ha! Eddie Seitz back to his old tricks with Liz Martin as a partner. Result: Tom Harder gets a wet seat!

Ruth Barley and Alice Hufford preparing a delicious chocolate cake.

Anna Heisey, Maxine Wright, and Richard Myers practice on calculators.

Chemistry enthusiasts . . . Gerda Wittek and Jim Bingeman, perform an experiment.

Two hard-working shop students, Bob Stone and Ronald Fearn, draw up blue prints.

Oh, to see ourselves . . .

As we joyfully take over our tenth grade duties, we find that an amazing change has come over us. Gone are the silly habits and customs of freshmanhood, and we are really settling down to the business of getting through high school. We find that more is expected of us, and so naturally we work all the harder. We were proud to be the first in the history of the school to select our hats and jackets in our sophomore year. We chose as our class colors blue and gray; to raise money we sold Kettle-Korn. As the year rolls to an end we are preparing ourselves for a most glorious and delightful year, when we shall climb up another step in the ladder of our education to become juniors.

Sophomore Class Officers and their Adviser . . . Miss Jane Hunsecker; Mary Martin, treasurer; John Dougherty, president; Janice Carl, vice president; Sue Patton, secretary.

The varsity team going through their routine practice session held after school.

Lane Shank - Tackle

Nels Chittum - End

Pete Fetter - Fullback

Major Lighthiser - Tackle

Barre Smuck - Guard

E-TOWN vs. PALMYRA

The Bears opened the 1950 season with a bang, only the bang backfired. Palmyra had too much weight and too much speed as they rang down the curtain on a win streak of fifteen consecutive conference games which the Bears had established. The final score—E-town 6, Palmyra 31.

E-TOWN vs. COLUMBIA

In the last quarter of this hard-fought game Larry Chapman, who had been injured, entered the game for the first time and ran 43 yards for the only touchdown as the Bears took their first conference game by a score of 6-0.

E-TOWN vs. MANHEIM TOWNSHIP

With their fangs gleaming the Bears roared out of their den to run all over the Blue Streaks by a score of 27-0. In five straight games played with Manheim Township, E-town has yet to lose.

E-TOWN vs. MANHEIM BORO

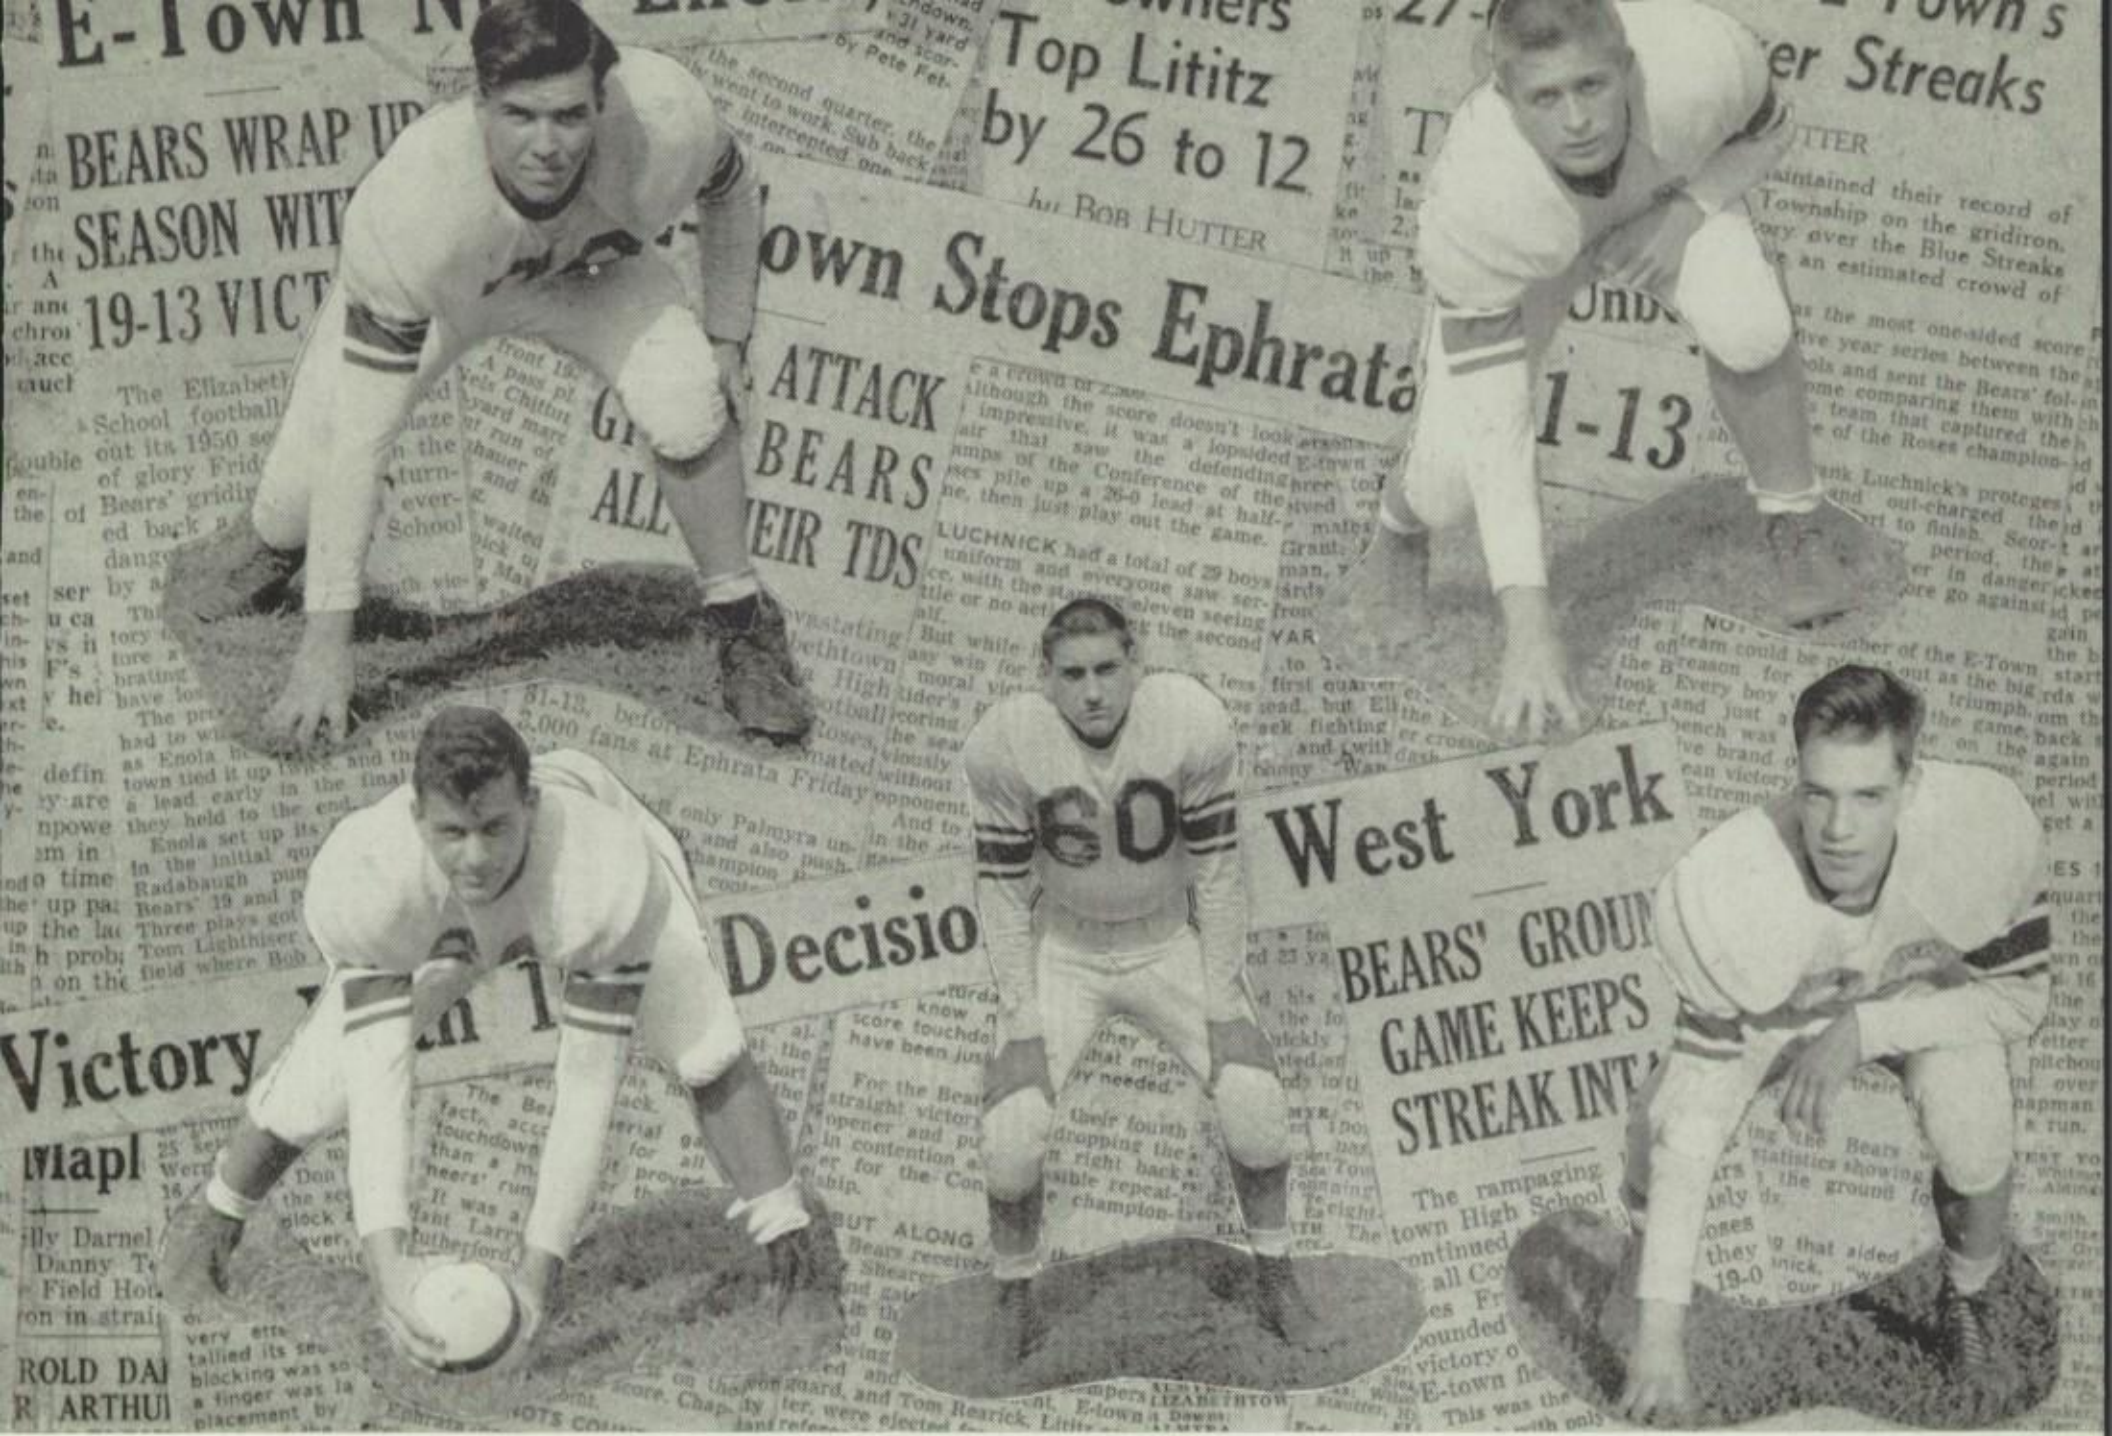
Our fighting team extended their win streak to three games by defeating a tough, vastly improved Manheim Boro team 21-7.

E-TOWN vs. LITITZ

The team pounded out a 26-12 decision over the Pretzels with everyone in uniform seeing action. The game was more one-sided than the score indicated as the Bears led 26-0 at the half.

E-TOWN vs. EPHRATA

Striking with a devastating aerial attack, the Bears handed Ephrata its first conference loss of the season. The ball flew for all five touchdowns and for the fifth straight win by a score of 31-13.



Tom Harder - Tackle

Piggy Parrett - Center

Pip Chapman - Halfback

Ronald Fearn - Guard

Jay Rutherford - End

Larry Chapman charges on for another gain before being brought down by three members of the opposing team.

E-TOWN vs. WEST YORK

The Bears rampaged over West York 19-0. The game was a sparkling display of power as E-town ground out 15 first downs to West York's 1.

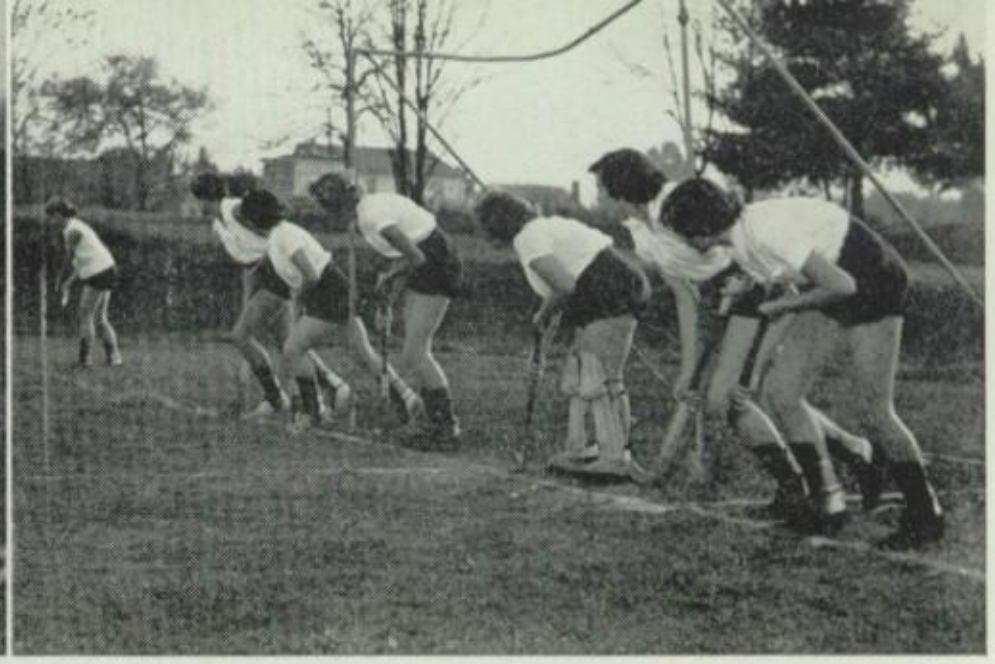
E-TOWN vs. SWATARA

A pass with a lateral spelled defeat with a capital "D" as Swatara showed their power by bumping us 25-0. This brought the total to two losses and six wins.

E-TOWN vs. ENOLA

The Bears closed their 1950 season in a blaze of glory as they turned back a speedy and ever dangerous Enola High School by a 19-13 score. Pass-happy Enola ran into trouble as the Bears intercepted two aerials to set up touchdown.

Center Pat Seiders taking a bully to start the game.



Lois Goodling taking a short corner at practice.

Action on the Field

The time keepers and score keepers get their last minute instructions before the Manheim Boro game.

Coach Hunsecker, hard driving coach of this year's Hockey Champs!

"Any questions, girls?" is the purpose of the referee's half-time visit.

OUR CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

SHOWING championship form from the beginning, the E-town girls defeated Mount Joy 7-0 . . . Sparked by their first victory they traveled to Manheim and again came out on top 5-0 . . . Fighting hard, our girls managed to defeat East Hempfield 3-2 . . . A score of 5-2 ended the first half of the hockey season for E-town and East Donegal . . . Mount Joy again tasted defeat as Dorothy Grubb pushed a goal across in the first half . . . A much improved Manheim team was able to hold E-town to a 1-1 tie . . . Excellent playing was exhibited at East Hempfield as neither team was able to score in any period . . . The team climaxed the 1950 hockey season by defeating East Donegal for the second time 3-0. . . . For the first time since hockey has started in E-town High the girls have had an undefeated season and captured the championship. Much of the credit goes to our three senior players: goalie Ruth Barley, fullback Nancy Campbell, and our left wing and captain Lois Goodling. But this could not have been accomplished without the excellent coaching of Miss Jane Hunsecker. Congratulations to our team and to Miss Hunsecker for a successful season!

The Victors

Ruth Barley served as our efficient goalie for the past two years.

Lois Goodling, the captain of this year's champs, played the left wing position.

Nancy Campbell did a good job as left fullback for our team.

First Row, Left to Right: Miss J. Hunsecker, J. Martin, M. Grubb, J. Wanamaker, G. Clarke, R. Barley, L. Goodling, N. Campbell, E. Beck, D. Emenheiser, D. Grubb, P. Seiders. Second Row: I. Carl, B. Kennedy.

Shoot 'em High

THE E-TOWN cagers roared out into the Lancaster County League and swept by every team in Section I. The Bears went undefeated in League competition, winning ten straight games. Our boys hit a snag when they ran afoul of our perennial rival, Middletown, in two non-league games. The team entered the County playoffs but failed to make their shots against Ephrata. Entered in the District 3, Class B playoffs, the Bears emerged victorious over Columbia in the first round. Three days later again we failed to make the grade against Middletown. Coach Barnhart and all the players deserve a lot of credit for the fine brand of ball that was played and our congratulations for annexing the Section I crown.

Tom and Nels spread out to cover large territory.

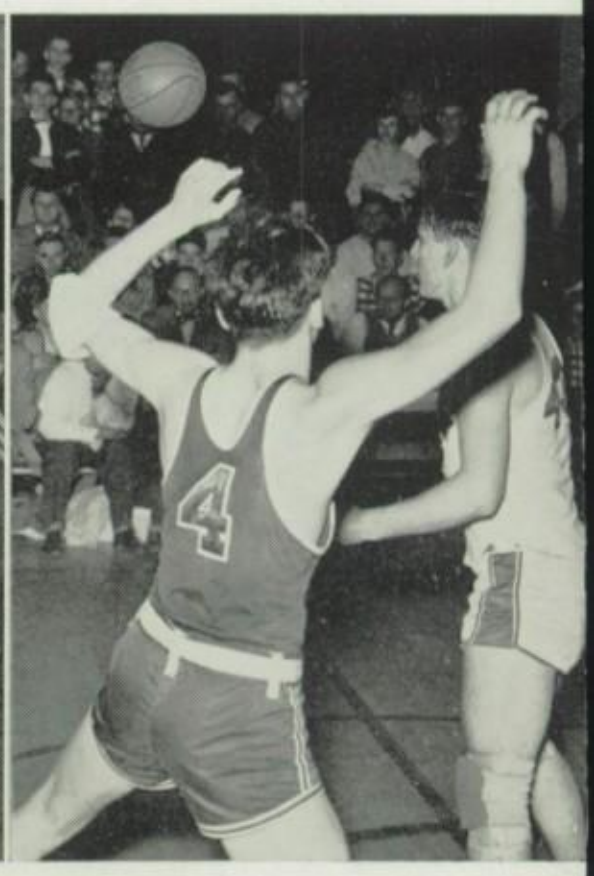
Every one's in on the scramble for the rebound.



Ball, Ball, who's going to get the ball?

LITERARY STAFF

WORKED HARD to have variety in their copy . . . had their share of headaches trying to find out who was who when identifying pictures . . . Miss Wagner urged stragglers to get their work finished . . . Helen Eshelman was the efficient literary editor.

Yearbook Staff

ART STAFF

STARTED early to draw line cuts for divider pages . . . Ruthie Barley kept them steppin' . . . Oh! what a job, pasting all those photographs . . . Miss Bahr was their capable adviser.

BUSINESS STAFF

SOLD record amount of ads and hounded everyone to be a patron . . . Miriam Rutt and Ed Seitz showed the way as co-managers . . . were reminded by Miss Bell to stick to business during fourth periods spent up town.

WE BELIEVE . . .

That the Brotherhood of man transcends
The sovereignty of nations:

That economic justice can best be won
By free men through free enterprise;

That government should be of laws
Rather than of men;

That earth's great treasure
Lies in human personality;

And that service to humanity
Is the best work of life.
